Les questions auxquelles se préparer :

- What are the reasons why you immigrated?
- How do you work in team?
- How do you work on your own?
- Why do you want to work for our company?
- What qualifications (professional experience) do you have that make you think you will be successful in this position?
- What are the five words that describe you the best?
- What are your short/long range goals?
- Why did you leave your last job?
- Can you work under pressure?
- Why should we hire you rather than someone else?
- What would you do if a conflict arises between yourself and a colleague? Or yourself and your superior?
- Give us an example of a project you had to deal with from the beginning to the end.
- What kind of visa do you have?
- What are your strengths/weaknesses?
- What kind of salary are you expecting?
- Tell us about yourself.
- Have you ever done this kind of work?
- Have you ever worked in Canada?
- What is your level in English language?
- What attracted you to this position?
- Could you describe what makes a ..... ?
- What 2/3 things are most important to you in a job?
- What was your last employer's opinion of you?
- Do you have any questions?

Les Usages :

- Les entretiens se déroulent souvent en anglais.
- Arriver en avance (être juste à l'heure est considéré comme être en retard)
- Porter votre CV, lettre de candidature, lettres de recommandations, copie des diplômes, liste de références.
- Mettre en avant des éléments brefs, concrets, chiffrables & vérifiables.
- Ne pas revenir en détail sur ses études.
- Se préparer à une mise en situation.

Entretien au Canada = projet dans l'entreprise.

- Proposer ses compétences
- Eventuellement, constituer un dossier de ses réalisations en lien direct avec le poste visé.
